

Estonian Perinatal Society (EPS) is a scientific organization of health care professionals involved in perinatal care of the mother and newborn infant. EPS unites obstetricians, midwives, neonatologists, pediatricians and nurses with the aim to ensure the best quality of pre-, intra- and postnatal care. EPS was founded in 1990 and has been an opinion leader in implementing contemporary principles of perinatal medicine in Estonia since then.

President	Pille Andresson	pille.andresson@itk.ee
Vice President	Kadri Palo	kadri.palo@itk.ee
Secretary	Mai Tammaru	mai.tammaru@itk.ee
Members of the Board	Konstantin Ridnõi	konstantin.ridnoi@itk.ee
	Ervin Saik	ervin.saik@mail.ee
	Birgit Suits	suitsb@ph.ee
	Pille Teesalu	pille.teesalu@kliinikum.ee
	Pille Vaas	pille.vaas@kliinikum.ee
	Ena Volmer	ena.volmer@mail.ee